What does this image make you think of?

Key words:

- Remembrance
- World War 1
- Conflict
- 11th November

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this seminar, you will be able to:

- describe what Remembrance is
- explain why we commemorate Remembrance
- give examples of the diverse ways that we commemorate Remembrance in the UK.

WHAT IS REMEMBRANCE?

Definition of Remembrance:

The act of someone remembering and showing respect for someone who has died, or a past event.

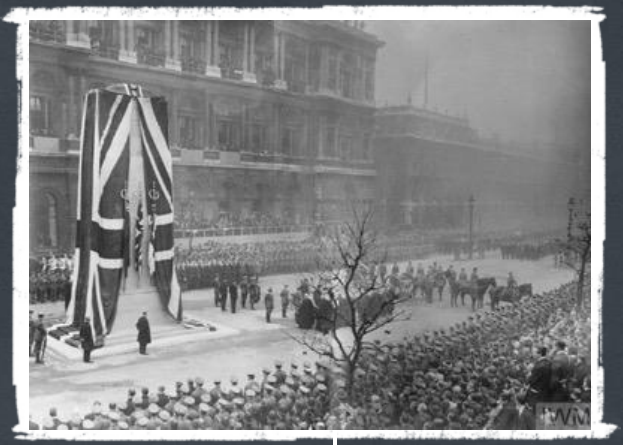
We commemorate Remembrance every year at 11:00 on the 11th day of the 11th month, November.

BASE BRITISH ARMY SUPPORTING EDUCATION

WHAT IS REMEMBRANCE?

Poppy growing from WW1 battlefields.

The poppy display at Tower of London in 2018 to mark 100 years since Armistice.



Remembrance day service at the Cenotaph in London, 1920.

WHAT IS REMEMBRANCE?

Remembrance aims to honour those who serve to defend our democratic freedoms and way of life.

This includes:

- remembering the sacrifice of the Armed Forces community from Britain and the Commonwealth
- paying tribute to the special contribution of families and of the emergency services
- acknowledging innocent civilians who have lost their lives in conflict and acts of terrorism.

THE COMMONWEALTH

In many wars that Britain has been involved in, communities around the Commonwealth have supported them. To begin with, the Commonwealth was made up of nations and territories controlled by the British Empire.

The Commonwealth works towards shared goals of prosperity, democracy and peace. It supports small states as well as developing societies and young people.

Some nations and territories in the Commonwealth are Barbados, Nigeria, Kenya, India, Sri Lanka, Canada, Malta, Cyprus, Australia and Samoa. There are currently 56 countries in the Commonwealth.

Think about:

- What does Remembrance mean to you?
- Why do you think it's important?
- How do you think the way in which we commemorate might change/stay the same in the future?

BASE BRITISH ARMY SUPPORTING EDUCATION

HOW DO WE COMMEMORATE REMEMBRANCE?

Remembrance isn't just about why we remember, and who we remember; it's also about how we remember. Remembrance is a verb – not just a noun!

Remembrance is an act – we choose to do something, alone, with friends and family or the wider community that helps us understand, reflect on, share or put into practice what we have learned.

Let's take a look at some examples...

PARADES

We All Remember – The first LGBTQ+ marches were held in 2021 in the Remembrance Sunday parade.

We Remember – The traditional Remembrance Sunday Service at the Cenotaph, London.

Children Remember – Children and young people take part in Remembrance activities in school and in with clubs or with their family.

MEMORIALS

Brighton Remembers – In 1921, the Chattri memorial was built to commemorate the lives of Indian soldiers lost in WW1.

The Tower of London Remembers – 888,246 ceramic poppies filled the Tower of London in 2018 to commemorate each British and Commonwealth soldier who died during WW1.

The Scottish Highlands Remembers – The Commando Memorial was unveiled in 1952 to commemorate the lives of the 1,700 commandos who lost their lives during WW2.

MEMORIALS

Hyde Park Remembers – The Memorial Gates commemorate the lives of those who fought for the British Empire from Africa, the Caribbean, Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka.

Tower Hill Remembers – The original memorial was unveiled in 1928 to commemorate the lives lost at sea in WW1. An extension was added for those whose lives were lost in WW2.

Cardiff Remembers – As part of the wider Welsh National War Memorial, this monument recognises the Diverse Ethnic and Commonwealth men and women who served in WW1 and WW2.

BASE BRITISH ARMY SUPPORTING EDUCATION

TIME TO REFLECT

Students Remember – Schools remember in unity, commemorating Remembrance Day each year with their school community.

Nature Remembers – The Remembrance Glade in Staffordshire was created as a peaceful environment for reflection.

Communities Remember – Towns, villages and cities commemorate Remembrance and a range of cultures and communities together.

BASE BRITISH ARMY SUPPORTING EDUCATION

FINAL REFLECTION

How else can people
honour Remembrance Day?

This Wednesday, at 9:50am, we will be joined by Newsome Juniors, Berry Brow and ex-veterans and members of Tommy's Charity on the courts where we will listen to a speech and the playing of 'The Last Post' followed by a 2-minute silence, then the playing of 'The Rouse' to conclude the ceremony. Thank you to the Technology Department for the display they have created and to Tommy's Voice Charity to allow us to display a steel soldier to commemorate all soldiers who have lost their lives in battle. Thank you.

Our Mission

To be the voice of the few, provide peer-to-peer support, signposting to essential services, and organizing events that foster camaraderie and connection. We aim to reduce social isolation and suicide, ensuring that those who have served our country receive the support and recognition they deserve.

What we do

Tommy's Voice is a dedicated charity committed to supporting military personnel, veterans and their families across the UK. Our mission is to give a voice to the Armed Forces Community by providing peer-to-peer support, signposting to essential services, and organising events that foster camaraderie and connection similar to their military service.

We offer guidance on applying for housing and benefits, assist with mental health self-referrals, and provide information on pensions and Veteran ID cards. Our goal is to help prevent social isolation and suicide, ensuring that those who have served our country receive the support and recognition they deserve. Join us in making a difference in the lives of our heroes.

OUR VALUES

Our history

Tommy's Voice was the brainchild of Jennie Riley (nee Thorn) and Mick Riley MBE.

Originally starting out as a CIC, Tommy's Voice quickly gained an outstanding reputation in the Huddersfield area offering support to the veteran and military community.

Tommy's Voice was granted charity status in 2024. and continues to grow and florish offering support and signposting to veterans.

OUR VALUES

Tommy's Voice became the driving force for good in the Huddersfield area for Veterans and their families, and has grown from the CIC into it's own registered charity. As one of the founders, Mick Riley MBE said;

"I realised after leaving the military there are still many veterans who are slipping through the cracks with un-diagnosed medical conditions, especially with their mental health."

Through Micks own struggles with PTSD following his 25 years in the British Army, retiring as WO1 (RSM), the highest non-commissioned rank in the Army, he realised there needs to be a service at a grass roots level where veterans and serving personnel can get the advice, support and signposting that's often overlooked by the bigger charities in the UK.

Jennie, co-founder and Micks wife is in agreement;

"There is no one in our area that is able to sit down with a veteran and help them with paperwork to get things like their Veterans ID Card, access to services. Veterans are entitled to so much support but may not be aware, this is where Tommy's Voice will come in"

Both Jennie and Mick also wanted the families of veterans to have an organisation they can turn to and get support with their daily lives. Often, it's the family members of veterans and serving personnel who recognise changes in their loved ones before they see it themselves. Through Tommy's Voice we can assist them with getting the support and assistance they rightfully deserve and need.

"I've always been an advocate of the veteran community, I began to realise that so many veterans are not getting or able to get support from the big main-stream charities. Whilst they do amazing work, they are unable to to help with the little things that many veterans struggle with."

Jennie found that many veterans and family members were coming across barriers to services or were unable to find where to turn to for advice on completing documentation and accessing records from military service. This is where Tommy's Voice comes in. we are able to give that 1-2-1 support and guidance.

"We are different as we compliment and work alongside the main-stream charities and organisations, we don't compete with them. We are here to guide and assist you on your journey to get access to the support you need, be it from local councils, other charities or organisations."

Through Tommy's Voice Both Jennie and Mick have been invited to Downing Street and had a candid conversation with the Prime Minister regarding Veterans and their families as well as meeting the Veterans Minister to discuss how to improve access to services for Veterans.

Our Logo

The Tommy's Voice logo is a patriotic nod to the 'old Tommy from WW1 through to the modern military men and women across the armed forces. You're able to tell what it is from the outset but remains a silhouette. With a subdued Union Flag, which all armed forces personnel wear on their uniform with pride in the background finishes the logo off.

Why is it called Tommy's Voice?

Our name comes in part from the famous Rudyard Kipling poem, 'Tommy' as it resonates with veterans from all conflicts past and present.

For it's Tommy this, an' Tommy that, an' "Chuck him out, the brute!"

But it's "Saviour of 'is country" when the guns begin to shoot;

An' it's Tommy this, an' Tommy that, an' anything you please;

An' Tommy ain't a bloomin' fool — "you bet that Tommy sees!"

LEST WE FORGET

Newsome Academy Remembrance Day Address 2026

Good morning, everyone and a warm welcome to our extended family, Newsome Junior Academy and Berry Brow Academy.

Remembrance Day takes place on 11 November each year. On that day in 1918, the fighting in the First World War stopped at eleven o'clock in the morning. Today, we mark that moment with two minutes of silence. We remember those who served, those who lost their lives, and all those whose lives have been changed by war. Today, we come together as one 'local family' to pause, reflect and remember. We remember those who served, those who sacrificed, and those who never returned home. We remember the families who lost loved ones and the generations whose lives were changed forever by conflict.

- As part of Impact Education Multi Academy Trust, we belong to a wider family of 18 schools. Each serves its own community, and we share a responsibility to help young people understand what it means to live alongside others with respect. On Remembrance Day, we think about what happens when that respect breaks down and what each of us can do to build peace in the places we call home.

At Newsome Academy, two simple words greet everyone who enters our school:

"Welcome Home."
- Those words represent safety, belonging and the belief that everyone deserves somewhere they can call home.
- Yet throughout history, war has taken those very things away from millions of people.
- Behind every life lost was a person with hopes, dreams, ambitions and people they loved. Many were young people, not much older than some of you standing here today.
- They gave their tomorrow so that others might have a future.

Our Academy vision is "Where Hearts and Minds Connect."
- Today, our hearts connect through compassion for those who suffered, and our minds connect through understanding the lessons of history.

Our RITA values of Respect, Integrity, Teamwork and Aspiration (British Values) remind us that remembrance is not simply about looking backwards. It is about how we choose to live our lives today.
- Choosing kindness over cruelty.
- Understanding over prejudice.
- Unity over division.

Newsome and Berry Brow is a wonderfully diverse community, and that diversity is one of our greatest strengths. Whatever our backgrounds, beliefs or experiences, today we stand together in remembrance.

- To our students, I want you to remember that courage is not always demonstrated on a battlefield. Sometimes courage is standing up for what is right, showing kindness, including others and challenging injustice. These everyday choices help create the peaceful world that so many sacrificed their lives to protect.

In a moment, we will observe two minutes of silence. I ask you to think about those who never came home, the families who waited for loved ones who never returned, and the responsibility we all share to protect the freedoms we enjoy today. Equally, we should all give our thoughts to those that are still suffering in the many wars that are still taking place around the world.

Because remembrance is not just about honouring the past. It is about the future we choose to create.

Lest we forget.
Thank you.
Two-minute silence

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
