Holocaust Memorial Day 27th January 2026

What is the Holocaust?

- The Holocaust was a period in history at the time of World War Two (1939-1945), when millions of Jewish people, and people from other backgrounds, were murdered because of who they were.
- The killings were organised by Germany's Nazi party, led by Adolf Hitler.
- Jews were the main target of the Nazis, and the greatest number of victims of the Holocaust were Jewish.
- Nearly seven out of every 10 Jews in Europe were murdered because of their identity.
- The Nazis also killed other groups of people, including Roma and disabled people.
- They arrested and took away the rights of other groups, like gay people and the Nazis' political opponents. Many of them died as a result of their treatment.
- The Holocaust was an example of something called genocide.
- Genocide is the deliberate killing a large group of people, usually because they are a certain nationality, race or religion, with the aim of destroying that group

Theme for 2026

- The theme for Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) 2026, 'Bridging Generations', is a call-to-action. A reminder that the responsibility of remembrance doesn't end with the survivors - it lives on through their children, their grandchildren and through all of us. This theme encourages us all to engage actively with the past - to listen, to learn and to carry those lessons forward. By doing so, we build a bridge between memory and action, between history and hope for the future
- Bridging Generations highlights the crucial role of the next generation in preserving the memory of the Holocaust and carrying it forward. It highlights the power of intergenerational dialogue – of listening to those who came before us and of sharing those stories with those who come after. In doing so, we don't just preserve memory – we connect it to the present.
- Genocide doesn't discriminate by age: infants, children, adults and the elderly have all experienced unimaginable suffering in different ways. In many cases, entire family lines were erased. Bridging Generations invites us to honour each life – and honour those who left no family to carry their legacy – whose legacies live on not through bloodlines but through books, films and other interpretations

Why the 27th January?

- Holocaust Memorial Day is held every year on the 27th January. This is the date on which the largest Nazi extermination camp of Auschwitz-Birkenau was liberated in 1945. It is a chance to remember the terrible events of the Holocaust, to show our respects to the dead, and to listen to the stories of the survivors.
- “Holocaust” is a Latin word meaning “completely burned” or “completely destroyed” and is used in English to describe a massive sacrifice or terrible massacre. Since the Second World War, the word has been used specifically to describe the death of 6 million Jewish men, women and children in Nazi death camps.
- 6 million people were killed just for being Jewish. 6 million is such a huge number, it is almost impossible to imagine. Think of the crowd at Wembley stadium – all those thousands and thousands of people, and then think of 60 Wembley stadiums, all full of people. That is approaching the number of innocent Jews who were killed by the Nazis.

Why is it important today?

- This unforgettable period in history must continue to be taught to commemorate the lives lost and prevent it from reoccurring.
- We are lucky enough to be in a society where survivors from the many countries impacted by WWII and the Holocaust have come forward to retell their experiences including being forced to leave their homes at young ages, being sent to concentration camps, go into hiding and/or being sent to live with strangers. They are all an inspiration, each with their own unique story to tell, to help educate us and understand the events of this historic period
- Antisemitism is prejudice against or hatred of Jews. The Holocaust, the state-sponsored persecution and murder of European Jews by Nazi Germany and its collaborators, is history's most extreme example of antisemitism. Violent antisemitism and hatred did not end with the defeat of Nazi Germany. It is important to stand up to antisemitism in all of its forms today.

Survivor's Stories

- The best way to learn about the Holocaust is through those people who experienced it first hand. Survivors' testimony is the best way to understand the devastation and humiliation people felt.
- Here is a survivor's story: Lydia Tischler - prisoner of Auschwitz Bing Videos

A poem written by Charles Whittaker-

- Holocaust Memorial Day Trust: Olivia Colman's recording of 'Auschwitz', by Charles N Whittaker

How can you get involved?

Each year people from across the UK take part in our Light the Darkness national moment for Holocaust Memorial Day.

At 8pm on 27 January people across the nation will light candles and put them safely in their windows to:

- remember those who were murdered for who they were
- stand against prejudice and hatred today
- Iconic buildings and landmarks will light up in purple during this powerful national moment of commemoration and solidarity.
